Trained in Photography & Fine Art at RMIT & Deakin, Dimitri was lucky enough to be accepted into the directing stream of the VCA school of film and Television. After graduating he gained further experience through Assistant Directing, working on productions such as The Great Gatsby, Underbelly, Bump, Farscape, Mission Impossible 2, Dark City and Babe among many others.

Dimitri's wrestling documentary, "Big Men; Bigger Dreams" screened on SBS and garnered both Dendy and AFI nominations, as well as "show of the week" in The Age Green Guide.

He's a three times Tropfest Finalist, and his short films have screened at, and won awards at many Australian and international film festivals, as well as being awarded the coveted Vimeo "Staff Pick".

Dimitri is currently developing feature projects as well as two feature length documentaries while always seeking future collaborations and story telling opportunities. Visit here.
